community with everything you want to know.

We are very excited for everyone to see the extended look tomorrow. It has taken longer than we wanted to get it ready, but as with everything we do, we know we need to exceed your expectations, and we are determined to deliver at the level you expect and deserve. While it is unfortunate that the intended game experience may now be impacted by some spoilers, we hope that everyone will wait a bit longer to experience the game for themselves on November 19.

We want to thank everyone in the community who has reached out with messages of support this past week — your words have meant more to this team than you can imagine. Ultimately, we are making this game for you, and without you, we would not have the privilege of making games.

We look forward to sharing more with you soon.

Sincerely,
Rockstar Games

Hundreds of people were reported missing after an avalanche of ice and rock triggered massive flash floods that swept through parts of Nepal on Wednesday, killing at least eight people and causing widespread damage to villages and infrastructure.

Officials said 384 tourists, including 291 from countries including India, the United States, the United Kingdom and Malaysia, were reported missing as a result of the flash flood.

The Bhotekoshi River flooded this morning, destroying several villages as well as roads and hydropower projects, officials said. They issued warnings to residents of several of Nepal's districts and asked them to stay away from the banks of Bhotekoshi, Trishuli and Narayani rivers.

The areas of Syapru Besi and Timure in the mountainous district of Rasuwa were severely affected, government officials said, while calling for extra vigilance by residents along the Bhote Koshi river.

APOSTOLIC NUNCIATURE
MANILA • PHILIPPINES
MESSAGE
It is a joy for me, as the Apostolic Nuncio in the Philippines, to extend my heartfelt best wishes to the entire community of initiators and creators, as well as associates and friends of Roblox Filipino Catholics based in Manila, Philippines, on the occasion of your 5th Founding Anniversary. I was happy to learn that you even created an online simulation for this year's Feast Day of Jesus Nazareno, allowing those unable to join the crowd in Quiapo, Manila, to still participate meaningfully.
I wholeheartedly support your inspiring initiative, which empowers young people by offering innovative access to Church catechesis through the Roblox platform. It is a welcome sign of progress when young Catholics take an active role in shaping a more fraternal and compassionate society. The social hub you have built, albeit virtually, can serve as a space of mutual encouragement, especially for those most in need of support, recognition, and companionship. Such connections can blossom into genuine friendships that strengthen the community.
As Pope Francis reminded us, "Social friendship and universal fraternity necessarily call for an acknowledgement of the worth of every human person, always and everywhere" (Fratelli Tutti, 2020, §106). Likewise, Pope Leo XIV exhorts young people: "Aspire to great things, to holiness, wherever you are. Do not settle for less. You will then see the light of the Gospel growing every day, in you and around you...continue to walk joyfully in the footsteps of the Savior, and spread your enthusiasm and the witness of your faith to everyone you meet" (Homily for the Mass of Jubilee of Youth, 3 August 2025).
Invoking the aid of Mary, Mother of Good Counsel, and in the name of the Holy Father Pope Leo, I bless each of you.
Manila, 10 January 2026

'HE IS IN SEVERE PAIN RIGHT NOW'

Iniulat ng kampo ni Sen. Jinggoy Estrada na natumba umano ang senador matapos lumagatok ang kaniyang kaliwang tuhod habang naglalakad sa New Quezon City Jail ngayong Miyerkules, Aug. 26.

Ayon sa kanyang kampo, nangyari ito kaninang umaga habang naghahanda ang senador sa kanyang scheduled knee x-ray.

Sa ngayon, papunta na raw ito sa Cardinal Santos Medical Center.

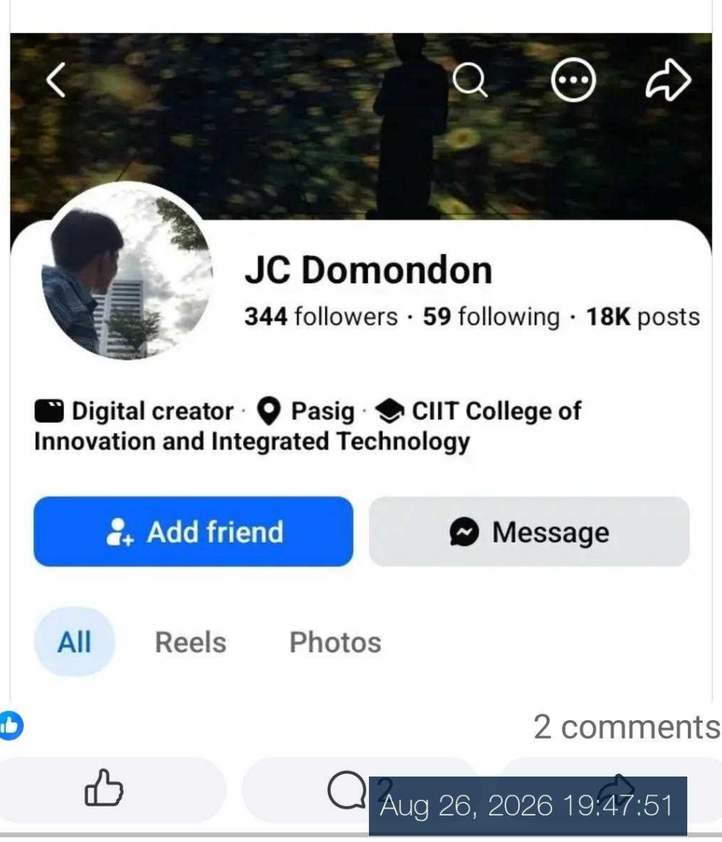
Gaslighting at its finest. 👌 history especially RPN that you should watch the video of Coloma's presscon on RPN-IBC privatization back in 2011 on PTV-4's YouTube Channel and you must visit IBC's office at Zuzuarregui Street in Quezon City.

If you are a former or current employee of either RPN or Nine Media, please comment down below or message me to debunk JC Domondon's claims.



IBC on the hand, is still pending on their privatization until now. however, it has lot of improvements on the channel such as they can retire senior employees with their retirement funds and replaced by new ones, stable budget and revenues for their broadcast facilities, the revival of DWAN 1206, they can produced programs for sister channel Congress TV and best of all, their franchise was renewed last year. in other words, IBC is better than sister channel PTV -4.

for Domondon, he still in a pre-privatization history especially RPN that you should watch the video of Coloma's presscon on RPN-IBC privatization back in 2011 on PTV-4's YouTube Channel and you must visit IBC's office at Zuzuarregui Street in Quezon City.

ADVISORY: The Daily Basis will ban a krazy kid named JC Domondon effective immediately by sharing misleading content especially the hatred two broadcast networks RPN (which is now a private company that he claimed that the network is still a government-controlled) and IBC-13.

I fact-checked and debunked him several times about RPN's current status as private broadcaster since the majority stake of 80% belongs to the private sectors including ALC Group through Nine Media Corporation with 34% share but he still not accept the facts that RPN was privatized in 2011 as confirmed by former PCOO Secretary Sonny Coloma, leaving 20% share for the government for minority stake which they can no longer to control the network anymore. RPN is currently handled RPTV in partnership with TV5 and Radyo Ronda stations.

IBC on the hand, is still pending on their privatization until now. however, it has lot of improvements on the channel such as they can retire senior employees with their retirement funds and replaced by new ones, stable budget and revenues for their broadcast facilities, the revival of DWAN

Fernando Syquia, says the 63-year-old lawmaker's knee twisted when he stood from a seated position inside the Quezon City Jail, causing a "pretty bad" meniscal tear.

The doctor said the type of tear would usually require surgery.

Asked if Estrada needed to stay in the hospital, Syquia explains that it would depend on the lawmaker's pain tolerance.

"If the pain cannot be controlled adequately with the medications that we gave…he might have to be admitted for the pain medications," he says. | via Michael Delizo, ABS-CBN News

Huwag maglakad mag-isa sa madilim na lugar.
Huwag mataranta, mag-isip ng paraan para makatakas sa panghahalay.

pagunawa at pakikinig sa hinaing ng taong-bayan. Gumawa ng mas maraming spaces para sa diskurso, at paigtingin ang pagpapalaganap ng impormasyon sa totoong lagay ng tubig at aksyon ng lokal na pamahalaan.

Naniniwala tayo na hindi pag-kondena at ituring na pambabastos/ pamamahiya ang pagsigaw ng “tubig” ang kailangan sa aksyon ng mga tao sa City Sports Complex noong Linggo ngunit mas paiigtingin ang pagunawa at pakikinig sa hinaing ng taong-bayan. Gumawa ng mas maraming spaces para sa diskurso, at paigtingin ang pagpapalaganap ng impormasyon sa totoong lagay ng tubig at aksyon ng lokal na pamahalaan.

PANOORIN: Kinumpirma ni Senator-Judge Bam Aquino na "Marcial Bonifacio" ang ginamit na alyas ng kaniyang titio na si dating Sen. Ninoy Aquino para makauwi siya sa Pilipinas, "pero wala naman siyang confidential funds," pagkaklaro ni Aquino.

Binusisi rin ni Aquino kung kanino nagmula ang impormasyon na "aliases" ang ginamit sa mga acknowledgment receipt, na aniya'y nagmula raw kay Gina Acosta at hindi si Prosecution team.

Pero ang hirap ding manahimik.
Araw-araw, ang dami nating nababalitang animal cruelty. At bawat isa, isang paalala na our animals need our help dahil wala silang kakayahang magsalita at ipagtanggol ang sarili.

Hindi sapat ang “sorry.” Dapat may accountability at kaukulang penalty. Sana maging seryoso at hindi maging lenient ang pagpapatupad ng batas.

May justice be served. 🙏

Walang pag-a-atubili at walang awa nilang sinunog ang isang kuting. Tuwang-tuwa pa ang mga lalaking ito sa Cabuyao, Laguna habang ginagawa to.

Ginawang katuwaan at content ang pananakit sa isang walang kalaban-laban na nilalang. Tapos ngayon, hihingi ng pasensya?

Mahirap tanggapin ang simpleng “sorry” pagkatapos ng ganitong klaseng cruelty. Sorry dahil nagsisi? O sorry dahil nahuli? 🤔

Hindi natin alam kung ano ang nasa isip nila o kung ano pa ang kaya nilang gawin sa hinaharap.

Thankfully, na-survive at na-rescue ang isang kuting. 🙏❤️Huge thanks to Bataan Animal Welfare na patuloy na lumalaban para sa mga hayop at hindi basta sumusuko sa mga ganitong kaso. Please support them, guys. 🫶

Honestly, ito yung mga klase ng content na gusto kong iwasan dahil nakaka-anxiety at sobrang sakit panoorin. And I'm sure marami rin sa atin ang nakakaramdam ng ganoon.

IN PHOTOS: The 7 Churches of Old Intramuros

This History Month, we remember the Seven Churches of Old Intramuros, which, together with their convents, schools, and institutions, made Intramuros a major center of religious life in Manila and the Philippines during the Spanish colonial period. These landmarks earned Intramuros its reputation as the "City of Churches."

These were the Manila Cathedral, mother church and seat of the Archdiocese of Manila; San Agustin Church of the Augustinians; San Francisco Church of the Franciscans; Santo Domingo Church of the Dominicans; San Nicolas de Tolentino Church of the Augustinian Recollects; San Ignacio Church of the Jesuits; and Lourdes Church of the Capuchins.

More than places of worship, these churches and their institutions helped shape the city and the nation, becoming deeply woven into the lives of Manileños. Over the centuries, they endured earthquakes, fires, and repeated destruction and rebuilding. The greatest devastation came during the Battle of Manila in 1945, when much of Intramuros was reduced to ruins. Of the seven churches, only San Agustin Church, the oldest stone church in the [illegible] the ruined Manila Cathedral was rebuilt in 1958, MASAYA ang Philippine National Police (PNP) sa resulta ng Octa Research survey kung saan 72% ng 1,200 adult respondents ang nagsabing ligtas sila sa kanilang mga komunidad.

Ayon sa survey, 68% ang hindi natatakot maglakad mag-isa sa gabi, habang 54% ang walang pangamba na pasukin ng magnanakaw ang kanilang bahay.

Sinabi ni PNP Public Information Office chief Col. Allen Rae Co na maaaring dulot ito ng mas estratehikong deployment ng mga pulis sa mga lugar na higit na nangangailangan ng presensya ng kapulisan.

Tumaas din sa 65% mula 63% ang tiwala ng publiko sa PNP, habang umakyat sa 63% mula 61% ang satisfaction rating sa performance nito.

Gayunman, sinabi ni Co na hindi nangangahulugang wala nang krimen at patuloy ang aksiyon ng PNP laban dito.

Nangako si PNP chief Gen. Jose Melencio Nartatez Jr. na hindi magiging kampante ang kapulisan at patuloy na palalakasin ang police patrols at pakikipag-ugnayan sa mga komunidad.

BAWAL KAININ
NG MAY HIGH BLOOD
Para sa mga may mataas na blood pressure (hypertension), ang pangunahing dapat iwasan ay ang mga pagkaing maalat, mataba, at matamis.
Ang tamang diet ay susi sa pagkontrol ng blood pressure.
LIMITAHAN ANG MGA SUMUSUNOD:
1 MGA PAGKAING MAALAT AT MATAAS SA SODIUM
Processed meats
De-lata (sardinas, tuna)
Instant noodles at sopas
Sawsawan at pampalasa (toyo, patis, bagoong, seasoning cubes, ketchup)
Junk food, chips, chichirya
Maalat na mani at biskwit na may asin
SODIUM = NAGPAPATAAS NG PRESYON NG DUGO
2 PAGKAING MATAAS SA SATURATED AT TRANS FATS
Matatabang bahagi ng karne: Taba ng baboy (liempo), baka, tupa, at balat ng manok
Chicharon at pritong pagkain
Full-fat dairy: Butter, cheese (keso), margarine, at buong gatas
Processed baked goods: Doughnut, cookies, cake na may shortening o trans fats
MASASAMANG TABA = BUMABARA SA MGA UGAT
3 MATATAMIS AT SUGARY FOODS AT DRINKS
Soft drinks at energy drinks
Matatamis na panghimagas: Candy, tsokolate (maliban sa dark chocolate), at mga milk tea
Pastries na maraming butter
SOBRANG ASUKAL = PAGTABA AT ALTAPRESYON
4 MGA INUMIN NA DAPAT LIMITAHAN
Alak: Ang labis na pag-inom ng alak ay nagpapataas ng presyon at sumisira sa bisa ng mga gamot
Sobra-sobrang kape: Ang caffeine ay maaaring magdulot ng panandalian na pagtaas ng blood pressure
LABIS NA ALCOHOL AT CAFFEINE = PAGTAAS NG BP
5 ANO ANG DAPAT IPALIT?
Piliin ang mga pagkaing mababa sa asin ngunit mayaman sa potassium, magnesium, at fiber.
TAMANG KAIN, HEALTHY HEART!
MGA PAGKAING DAPAT KAININ:
MGA PRUTAS
Saging, abokado, pakwan, at mga citrus na prutas tulad ng dalandan.
MAYAMAN SA POTASSIUM NA NAKAKATULONG MAGPABABA NG BP
MGA TALBOS AT GULAY
Mataas sa nitrates at magnesium tulad ng kamote, kangkong, spinach, broccoli, repolyo at kamatis na nagpapaluwag ng daluyan ng dugo.
WHOLE GRAINS NA MATAAS SA FIBER
Brown rice, oatmeal, at whole wheat bread.
PROTINA (HEALTHY PROTEINS)
Piliin ang mga isdang sagana sa Omega-3 (tulad ng mackerel, sardinas, galunggong at tuna), manok (walang balat), at mga beans o monggo.
NUTS AT SEEDS
Magandang pampalipas-gutom tulad ng mani, pili, kasoy at buto ng kalabasa na mayroong 'heart-healthy' fats.

On Sept. 4, 2022, Pope Francis beatified him in St. Peter's Square, proclaiming him Blessed John Paul I.

Though his time as pope was brief, his example of humility, joy, and service continues to inspire the Church.

Blessed John Paul I, pray for us.

Despite his brief time in office, John Paul I began shaping his pontificate through simplicity, humility, and accessible catechesis. He delivered several general audiences, speaking about Christian virtues including faith, hope, charity, humility, and the importance of living out the Gospel in daily life.

His warm smile and conversational manner quickly earned him the affectionate nickname "the Smiling Pope." He also continued meeting with bishops, clergy, diplomats, journalists, and ordinary faithful, maintaining a pastoral style that made him widely admired.

John Paul I also carried out acts of Church governance and issued several apostolic letters during his short pontificate. His first Urbi et Orbi message was delivered the day after his election.

On Sept. 28, 1978, only 33 days after his election, Pope John Paul I died unexpectedly at the age of 65. His sudden death shocked the Catholic world and brought one of the shortest pontificates in modern history to an end.

His reputation for holiness continued to grow after his death. Pope Francis recognized a miracle attributed to his intercession in 2021, involving the healing of a young Argentine girl.

THE POPE WHO REIGNED FOR ONLY 33 DAYS

Pope John Paul I, born Albino Luciani, was elected as the 263rd pope of the Catholic Church on Aug. 26, 1978, succeeding Pope St. Paul VI. He chose the name John Paul in honor of his two immediate predecessors, Pope St. John XXIII and Pope St. Paul VI.

His pontificate would last only 33 days, making it one of the shortest in the history of the papacy. The shortest pontificate traditionally recorded is that of Urban VII, who was elected on Sept. 15, 1590, but died of malaria just 13 days later, before he could be crowned. Other notably brief pontificates include Boniface VI, who reigned for about two weeks, and Stephen II, whose death came only days after his election in 752.

On Sept. 3, 1978, Pope John Paul I formally inaugurated his Petrine ministry in St. Peter's Square. In his homily, he described the pope's role as one of service and charity, emphasizing that his authority was meant to serve the Church and the faithful.

Despite his brief time in office, John Paul I began shaping his pontificate through simplicity, humility, and accessible catechesis. He delivered several general audiences

LIGUTAN FIRES BACK AT DEFENSE

Prosecution counsel Amando Virgil Ligutan expressed his dismay over the criticism made by defense lead counsel Sheila Sison regarding his August 12, 2026 Facebook post concerning 'misleading questions'.

In his counter-manifestation on the 19th day of the impeachment trial, Ligutan stressed that his post was not meant to be personal, but rather a reminder for his law students.

"If there's somebody who needs to be reminded about humility, it's them, the defense. It is the opposite of humility. It is pride not to admit a mistake or worse call out someone who simply corrected that mistake," he said on Wednesday, August 26, 2026.

Ligutan's viral post stemmed from a heated argument between prosecution counsel Lorna Kapunan and defense lawyer Kristine Ferrer, during which Ferrer seemingly insisted that 'misleading questions' could be thrown at a witness.

Divinagracia maintained that the circumstances at the time were different because the country was at war. Padilla countered that the Philippines was also facing an armed conflict with the New People's Army (NPA), whose members likewise used aliases.

"Ang gusto ko lang pong ipaalam sa ating prosecution, napakahalaga po ng alias sa panahon ng ating [giyera]. Hindi po ginagamit ang pangalan at hindi po pumipirma," Padilla added.

'ANG ATING MGA BAYANI AY GUMAMIT NG ALIAS'

Senator-judge Robin Padilla questioned prosecution counsel Mae Divinagracia on the importance of using aliases, citing their use by Filipino heroes during the country's struggle against colonial rule.

"Ito po ang pinakamagandang panahon para maipaalala po sa inyo na ang ating mga bayani ay gumamit ng alias," Padilla said, referring to historical figures who used names such as "Dimasalang," "Siling Labuyo," and "Tikbalang."

"First, Your Honor, I cannot comment. I'm not sure of the circumstances surrounding their use of aliases. Under the Anti-Alias Law, ina-allow naman po ang paggamit ng alias provided na naka-disclose rin ano 'yung real name," Divinagracia replied.

Padilla then noted that Filipino heroes had used aliases from 1892 to 1896, saying the practice continued until Teodoro Patiño revealed information about the Katipunan.

Eight people, including four children, are believed to have been killed at a home in Montana where a shooting and fire occurred following a "family disturbance," police said.

The "unimaginable tragedy" unfolded at a residence in Billings on Sunday, according to police. Law enforcement responded to the home shortly after 6 p.m. after receiving a 911 call of an "active shooting event" and heard gunfire upon arrival, Billings Assistant Chief Shawn Mayo said. The house had also become fully engulfed in flames, he said.

‘KUNG MAY CONFIDENTIAL FUND SI FORMER SENATOR ANGARA, NA SIYA NGAYON AY SECRETARY NG DEPED, MAAARI PO BANG NAPIGIL NIYA ANG MGA SHOOTING INCIDENT SA MGA PAARALAN?’

"Naniniwala po ba kayo na ang ating mga bayani ay may mga alias?"

Senator-judge Robin Padilla asks prosecution counsel Mae Divinagracia if she knows that national heroes also used aliases.

Divinagracia says under Anti-Alias Law, it's not completely prohibited, provided they also disclose the real names. She adds, Philippines was at war before.

Padilla asks: Wala po ba tayong giyera sa NPA? Ang NPA, may alias.

Divinagracia says: Iba po ang internal armed conflict, iba naman din po yung war. #VPonTrial | via April Benjamin, INQUIRER.net

ROBIN ASKS PROSECUTION ABOUT 'IMPORTANCE' OF ALIASES IN CONFIDENTIAL FUND RECORDS

Senator-judge Robinhood Padilla on Wednesday asked the House prosecution team about the significance of using aliases during the 19th day of Vice President Sara Duterte's impeachment trial.

HIDDEN TUNNEL UNEARTHS POSSIBLE HISTORY IN SAN REMIGIO, ANTIQUE

A little-known tunnel in Barangay Carmelo I, San Remigio, Antique is drawing attention for its unusual underground passages and possible historical significance.

Locals say the tunnel has three entrances believed to be connected to nearby Barangay Carawisan and may have been used for mineral mining during the Spanish era and later during the Japanese occupation.

The community has preserved the site in its natural condition, while the Municipal Government of San Remigio and Antique Provincial Tourism Office are working to prepare it for possible tourism development.

The tunnel could soon offer visitors a glimpse into one of San Remigio's lesser-known historical and natural treasures. Carmelo I is an officially recognized barangay of San Remigio.

librong nakapangalan sa kanya, at maramdaman ang simpleng mensahe:

Hindi man kita kilala, mahalaga ang kinabukasan mo.

That is the country we should be trying to build.

Hindi lang bansang maraming mayaman.

Kundi bansang walang batang masyadong mahirap para magkaroon ng sariling libro.

Rest well, Dolly.

You could have spent a lifetime building a bigger fortune.

Instead, you helped millions of children build bigger worlds inside their heads.

And in the end, maybe that was the greater fortune.

Dolly Parton never became a billionaire.

But more than 300 million times, a child opened a book sent by the program she started.

There are fortunes measured in dollars.

And there are fortunes measured in children who learned to read, people who felt less alone, marginalized communities who heard a global superstar say they deserved love too, and possibilities placed inside small hands.

That is why I have admired Dolly Parton for so long.

She proved that you can be commercially brilliant without making greed your personality. You can be deeply rooted in faith without turning faith into a weapon. You can become enormously wealthy without treating accumulation as the final purpose of wealth. And you can come from a tiny poor community and decide that your success should make somebody else's world bigger too.

Before a child becomes a doctor, engineer, scientist, journalist, teacher, farmer, entrepreneur or lawyer, kailangan muna niyang makilala ang mga letra.

Before a child can change the world, someone has to help that child imagine that another world is possible.

That was Dolly Parton's genius.

Hindi lang siya namigay ng libro.

Namigay siya ng posibilidad.

And perhaps that is the best way to measure how rich somebody really was.

Not by how much money remained in the bank.

Not by how many properties carried her name.

Not by how many additional billions she could have accumulated.

But by how many lives became larger because she once passed through this world.

Dolly Parton never became a billionaire.

Aug 26, 2026 13:26:31

Walang mukha ng mayor sa cover.

Walang "Handog ni Congressman" sa unang pahina.

Walang campaign color.

Walang malaking tarpaulin na mas mahal pa yata kaysa sa mga librong ipinamigay.

Ang bida ay bata.

Because literacy should never be political patronage.

It should be public infrastructure.

If governments can spend billions on roads, buildings, intelligence funds, ayuda programs, publicity materials and projects carrying politicians' names, surely we can ask:

Can we afford one book a month for every Filipino child?

A book looks like a small thing until you remember that almost every big thing begins with the ability to read.

Before a child becomes a doctor, engineer, scientist, journalist, teacher, farmer, entrepreneur or lawyer, kailangan muna

Aug 26, 2026 13:26:29

kayang bilhan ng libro ng mga magulang niya.

And this is the part I hope we steal from Dolly Parton.

Sana magkaroon din tayo ng Philippine Imagination Library.

Imagine it.

Every Filipino child, from birth until five years old, receiving one free book every month.

Sa Tondo. Sa Basilan. Sa Batanes. Sa Samar. Sa isang sitio na kailangang tawirin ng bangka. Sa condo sa BGC. Sa bahay na walang sariling bookshelf.

Pare-parehong may libro.

Filipino. Cebuano. Ilocano. Hiligaynon. Waray. Tausug. Maranao. English. Books written and illustrated by Filipinos, with stories where children can recognize their families, languages, communities and dreams.

And please, for once:

Huwag pangalanan sa politiko.

Aug 26, 2026 13:26:25

Walang mukha ng mayor sa cover.

"I know and love them all, and I do not judge."

No complicated theological gymnastics.

No culture-war PowerPoint presentation.

No sermon explaining why somebody else deserves fewer rights.

Pagmamahal lang.

When Black Lives Matter became the center of national debate, she was similarly straightforward: "Of course Black lives matter."

This was part of Dolly's quiet kind of courage.

Southern. Christian. Country singer. Lumaki sa matinding kahirapan sa Tennessee.

But she never used where she came from as an excuse to make her world smaller.

She used it to make the table bigger.

May upuan para sa mahirap. May upuan para sa bakla. May upuan para sa lesbian at trans. May upuan para sa batang hindi kayang bilhan ng libro [illegible] niya.

Aug 26, 2026 13:26:23

Habang maraming mayaman ang nagpapamana ng apelyido, si Dolly nagpamana ng vocabulary.

While others spent their lives making their portfolios bigger, she spent part of hers making children's imaginations bigger.

And perhaps that is one of the better definitions of wealth: when the money you earned becomes an opportunity for a child whose name you will never know.

Dolly also understood something else that should not have been revolutionary, but somehow still is.

Human dignity is not supposed to depend on whether somebody looks like you, loves like you, worships like you, or votes like you.

She was a Southern Christian country singer from rural Tennessee. Yet for decades, she openly embraced LGBTQIA+ people and supported equal treatment and same-sex marriage. She repeatedly spoke of gay, lesbian and transgender people with affection rather than judgment.

She once put it simply:

"I know and love them all, and I do not judge."

In 1995, Dolly founded the Imagination Library because her father could not read or write. She saw firsthand how illiteracy could limit an intelligent person's life, so she created something beautifully simple: enrolled children from birth until age five would receive a free, age-appropriate book every month, delivered directly to their homes.

Hindi kailangang honor student.

Hindi kailangang mayamang pamilya.

Hindi kailangang may kakilalang mayor.

Bata ka?

May libro ka.

From an initial order of around 1,700 books in 1995, Dolly Parton's Imagination Library had distributed more than 304 million books by the end of 2025. Today, the program sends millions of books every single month to children across several countries.

Think about that.

Millions of books.

Every month.

She had every ingredient needed to spend the rest of her life chasing another zero.

But she never became a billionaire.

And somehow, that makes her story more interesting.

Because in a world where success is often measured by how much wealth you can accumulate, Dolly seemed to use a different calculator.

The question was not simply:

"How much can I make?"

It was also:

"How much good can I do with what I made?"

And doon siya naging mas mayaman kaysa sa maraming taong technically mas mayaman sa kanya.

In 1995, Dolly founded the Imagination Library because her father could not read or write. She saw firsthand how illiteracy could limit an intelligent person's life, so she created something beautifully simple: enrolled children from birth until age five would receive a free, age-appropriate book

Kahapon, pumanaw si Dolly Parton.

And this one hits differently for me because Dolly has long been one of the celebrities I genuinely admired. Not just because she wrote "Jolene," "9 to 5," and "I Will Always Love You." Not just because she was funny, flamboyant, brilliant, and one of the smartest businesswomen in entertainment.

I admired her because Dolly Parton understood something many rich and powerful people never seem to learn:

Money is useful. But what you do with it is the biography that matters.

Dolly was very rich. Forbes estimated her fortune at around $450 million in 2025. She had Dollywood, thousands of songs, publishing rights, businesses, movies, royalties, hotels, merchandise, and an intellectual-property empire built over decades. She was famously smart enough to keep ownership of her music when other artists were surrendering theirs.

She had every ingredient needed to spend the rest of her life chasing another zero.

A powerful reminder that even in the midst of political trials and public controversy, we must never forget the Cross of Christ. May St. Padre Pio intercede for our nation, that truth, justice, wisdom, and charity may prevail—not through hatred or vengeance, but through God's grace.

'CORRECTING A MISTAKE IS NEVER WRONG'

House private prosecution counsel Amando Virgil Ligutan defends his social media post about "misleading questions," saying it was intended to uphold the law and educate the public watching the proceedings, not to target the defense.

This comes in response to the manifestation of defense lead counsel Sheila Sison over his post that appeared to reference a defense lawyer's statement during a cross-examination.

House private prosecutor Atty. Mae Divinagracia said Vice President Sara Duterte’s protection is already covered by the AFP and PNP’s intelligence funds, questioning the need for confidential funds.

“The P500 million bought protection the Vice President already had, against threats the AFP and the PNP were already paid billions to watch.

CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION
Republic of the Philippines

CSC CORDILLERA ADMINISTRATIVE REGION

NOTICE OF CANCELLATION OF CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATION
(Due to Invalidation of the Answer Sheet)

24 August 2026

Dear Ms.

This is to formally inform you that your Career Service Examination Pen and Paper Test (CSE-PPT) - Professional conducted on 9 August 2026 has been CANCELLED due to invalidation of the Answer Sheet for the use of wrong examinee number.

This action is taken pursuant to the validated discrepancies in the shading and/or use of Examinee Numbers (EN) detected during the initial phase of examination results processing.

May we emphasize that (i) CSC Examination Advisory No. 10, s. 2026, (ii) Examiner's Manual on Administering Civil Service Examination-Pen and Paper Test (July 2026), and (iii) Examinee's Guide in Taking the Career Service Examination - Pen and Paper Test (CSE-PPT), all provide the following stipulation:

> Examinees shall STRICTLY USE ONLY THE EXAMINEE NUMBER ASSIGNED to them as found in the Examinee Attendance Sheet. They MUST NOT USE ANY OTHER EXAMINEE NUMBER. Non-compliance/failure to use the assigned Examinee Number may constitute violation of Republic Act No. 9416 (Anti-Cheating Law), i.e., examinee number switching which, among others, is a specified form of “cheating.”
> IMPROPER SHADING OF EXAMINEE NUMBER, OR UNSHADED EXAMINEE NUMBER, OR USE OF WRONG EXAMINEE NUMBER on the Answer Sheet shall invalidate the examination. As such, the examination shall be CANCELLED. (Underscoring Supplied)

In view thereof, and considering that compliance with examination procedures is essential to ensure the integrity, accuracy, and fairness of the examination process, any deviation from the prescribed instructions constitutes sufficient ground for invalidation.

Accordingly, your examination record has been excluded from the processing of test results, hence, you will have no rating but your name shall be included in the register of examinees (List of Passing/Failing Examinees) tagged as “cancelled”.

However, you may still take the CSE - Professional regardless of mode (PPT or Digital Examination) after the three (3) months prohibition period.

Very truly yours,

'LET US NOT MISLEAD AGAIN THIS HONORABLE COURT'

Ito ang saad ni Private Prosecutor Atty. Lorna Kapunan matapos linawin ni Defense Counsel Atty. Kristine Ferrer tungkol sa pahayag niya sa "misleading questions" sa impeachment trial noong Aug. 12.

"I'd like to manifest, though, that again, the statement of counsel is 'misleading' because it was very clear, it was very clear and the transcripts will show that the immediate phrase which led to my remark was not about leading, it's about misleading, your honor," saad ni Atty. Kapunan.

Harap-harapang corruption na unresolved sa IT sector eh.

Remind ko lang kayo, oo, "unresolved", dahil wala pa ring napapanagot dito, ni isa. Just like the Overpriced Adobe softwares of PhilHealth and the 10M PHP "server" of DPWH.

Pero bakit nga ba maanomalya ang biniling laptop ng DepEd mula sa kumpanya ni Zaldy Co nung 2022? Dahil marami pa ring hindi nakakaalam:

❌ OVERPRICED. Kahit pa sabihin nating kung ano-anong bidding shenanigans ang dinaanan nito, o may mga "extra service" na binili, malayo pa rin sa realistic price ng ganitong laptop nung 2022.

Retail, ₱20K to ₱25K lang 'to.
Wholesale? Mas mura pa.

So gets mo na kung bakit overpriced? So saan napunta yung sobra?

Very sad to report that Dolly Parton, one of the greatest Country singers, and far beyond, EVER, has just passed away. This is a true loss for millions of people. Dolly Parton, the country singer, songwriter, entertainer and music, she was an icon. A superstar in every sense," Eminem wrote.

"Rest easy Dolly. And thank you for the kind words."

Marshall (Eminem),

Congratulations on your induction into the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame. Your performance was amazing and everybody said so. Even though I don't know a lot about rap music, I've come to know that you are the very best at it. Aside from that I hope what I have to say will not seem weird or strange to you but I have always felt some unexplained connection to you like I know you somehow. I had hoped to meet you at the show but you know how nuts those things are, personally I hate 'em and I missed my chance but maybe someday we'll meet. In the meantime, keep doing what you're doing because you do it so well and no matter how complex your world may be just know you are very special and touch people in ways you don't even know.

With love & respect,
Dolly Parton

#Eminem shared a handwritten letter from #DollyParton following her de*th, recalling the impact of her words and his regret that they never got to meet.

"Even for a kid who mostly listened to rap music, she was an icon. A superstar in every sense," Eminem wrote.

And speaking of baha, parang ilang linggo na yata ang baha sa ibat-ibang bahagi nga Luzon na hindi pa rin humuhupa, mukhang mas malubha pa yata ang mga yan kesa sa flood control epicenter na bansag niyo sa mahal kong Dabaw.

Boying Remulla, bago ninyo ideklara na Davao City ang "epicenter" ng flood control corruption noong Duterte administration, baka puwedeng silipin muna ninyo ang mismong records ng DPWH.

Nang maupo ako bilang Congressman ng 1st District of Davao City noong 2019, DPWH XI furnished me a copy of its list of completed projects covering 2020–2022. I have my copy.

Kung wala kayo, sabihin ninyo at padadalhan ko kayo. Para pareho tayong may binabasang dokumento bago magbitiw ng mabibigat na akusasyon.

At kung imbestigahan niyo ang Davao dapat hindi lang during my term po ha, 2019 lang po ako naupo na congressman sa aming lugar. Long before I became congressman, Nograles po ang congressman sa aming distrito.

Kung seryoso tayo sa paghahanap ng katotohanan, walang dapat piliing taon, pangalan, partido, o administrasyon. Kung may anomalya, imbestigahan. Kung may ebidensya, ilabas. Pero huwag gawing shortcut ang political narrative para makabuo ng konklusyon.

Malaki pa rin ang tiwala ko sa Ombudsman bilang bantay ng kaban ng bayan. Hindi lang naman kayo ang Ombudsman. Naniniwala akong marami pa ring opisyal at empleyado diyan na may malasakit, integridad, at konsensya para sa bayan.

Kaya sana, Jesus Crispin Remulla, huwag sana tayong pa dalos dalos sa pag bitiw ng mga salita at baka ikasisira lang ito sa kredibilidad ng institusyon lalu na at nasa pag iimbestiga pa lang kayo na stage. Ang Ombudsman ay dapat naghahanap ng katotohanan—not convenient villains.

At kung Davao ang tinutukoy ninyong "epicenter," then show us the complete records. Lahat ng taon. Lahat ng proyekto. Lahat ng pangalan. Walang pili. Walang exempted.

Kumusta na pala yung imbestigasyon nyo sa trilyon pisong flood control corruption mula 2023 hanggang kasalukuyan? May listahan din ba sila ng nakumpletong mga infra projects tulad ng sa Davao City 1st District?

And speaking of baha, parang ilang linggo na yata ang baha sa ibat-ibang bahagi nga Luzon na hindi pa rin humuhupa, mukhang mas malubha pa yata ang mga yan kesa sa flood control epicenter na bansag niyo sa mahal kong Dabaw. Makakita ng Kaunti

NINTENDO SWITCH 2
As soon as the debut trailer for James Pond Legacy: The Pond Is Not Enough dropped, gamers were quick to lob AI accusations at the artwork that appears. All you need to do is head to the comments of the trailer above and you'll see account after account making AI claims. It seems System 3 may have expected such a reaction, as they've already released multiple statements pushing back on the accusation.
No generative AI was used in the creation of the artwork. Every stage began with the authentic original James Pond graphic and was completed using traditional digital illustration, 3D rendering and manual artistic refinement.
"System 3 has confirmed with [the PR team] that no generative AI was used to create the character artwork highlighted in the trailer. The Pondverse characters were produced through a human-led process beginning with the authentic James Pond pixel graphics."

I remember when I was younger I wasn't a fan of country music (I think the overexposure of 'Achy Breaky Heart' turned many away from it), but even during that time I loved Dolly Parton's songs. Whenever someone brought that up I would say "Well she's not really country, she's...something better." Well I was half right, she is something better, but she is also unmistakably country music.

She's the heart, evolution, and emotional core of everything that's great about it. As an adult I've opened up more to it, and much of that is from Dolly's amazing sound. The number of inspiring stories, charming interviews, and wise words surrounding this woman are too many to count. She's been underestimated by many, yet always cheerfully leapt at the opportunity to prove them wrong.

A great talent, a great artist, and a great human being will be missed.

Another annoying thing [music] the auto-generated captions are now doing is putting [music] in the middle of sentences whenever someone [music] pauses while speaking in a video [music] that has any background music playing. So if you include background music in your videos, you might want to do a few tests to see if you can adjust it to a level that is still audible but not enough to be constantly picked up in the middle of sentences by the captions-bot.

🚨 SINUNOG ANG MGA KUTING PARA SA CONTENT — IPINANAWAGAN ANG MASUSING IMBESTIGASYON

Iniulat na ilang kuting ang sinunog nang buhay ng dalawang lalaki, na umano'y nag-record ng malupit na gawain at ginawa itong content. Sa video, makikitang umano'y tumatawa ang mga indibidwal habang sinusunog ang mga kuting.

Ang kakila-kilabot na insidenteng ito ay unang ibinahagi sa publiko ng Anonymous Cabuyao. Ang naiulat na lugar ng insidente ay Mamatid, Phase 2 Extension, Cabuyao, Laguna.

Hinihikayat namin ang sinumang may impormasyon tungkol sa pagkakakilanlan ng mga sangkot, mga pangyayari sa likod ng insidente, o kinaroroonan ng mga kuting na magsumbong at magbigay ng beripikadong impormasyon sa mga kinauukulang awtoridad.

Ang kalupitan sa hayop ay hindi content. Isa itong krimen.

Kung mayroon kang anumang impormasyon, mangyaring i-report ito sa mga awtoridad upang makatulong na matukoy ang mga responsable at matiyak na mananagot sila sa batas.

‘MY TEACHER’S INSTINCT KICKED IN’

Counsel for the prosecution, Atty. Amando Ligutan, defended his viral Facebook post on misleading questions, saying it was not directed at the defense but was meant to uphold proper legal procedure.

“I am a lawyer, but more than just a lawyer, first and foremost, I am a teacher,” Ligutan said, explaining that he wanted law students to know that he was correcting what he believed was a mistake heard in open court.

He added that he did not discuss the merits of the case, but only the rules of procedure—and said what troubled him was the defense allegedly refusing to admit its mistake while calling out a lawyer and teacher for stating what he said was correct.

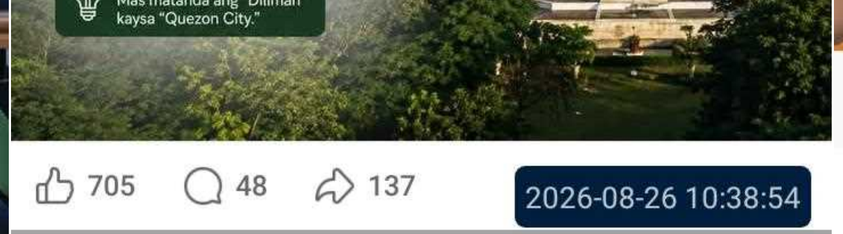
Akala mo ba sa UP lang galing ang pangalang Diliman? 🤔🌿 Mas matanda pa pala ang pangalang ito kaysa sa Quezon City mismo! 😳



Bakit tinatawag na Diliman ang malaking bahagi ng Quezon City?
Ang pangalang “Diliman” ay nagmula sa halamang diliman (Stenochlaena palustris), isang uri ng pako na saganang tumubo sa kagubatan sa lugar noon.
Bago pa itatag ang Quezon City, ang lugar ay bahagi ng malawak na Diliman Estate, na binili ng pamahalaan noong 1938 para sa pagbuo ng bagong lungsod.
Noong 1939, itinatag ang Quezon City. Pagkatapos ng digmaan, 1948–1949, lumipat ang University of the Philippines mula Maynila patungong Diliman.
Dahil sa laki ng dating Diliman Estate, hatiin man ito sa maraming barangay, nanatili ang “Diliman” bilang pangalan ng malawak na distrito sa Quezon City.
Sa madaling sabi:
Mas matanda ang “Diliman” kaysa “Quezon City.”

Maybe that's Ralph's nine out of 10. They're in, that's the achievement. The mall. They have smartphones. Netflix. S&R cards. Everybody looks prosperous.

Maybe the poverty line is a little like the S&R card. Very easy to say somebody crossed it, much harder to ask what they can actually afford once they get to the other side.

Anybody can buy soy sauce. The rich pay extra so they don't have to buy soy sauce next to a guy buying only soy sauce.

We're supposed to have built an entire sari-sari economy for exactly that guy. Sachets, shampoo for one bath, coffee for one morning, detergent for one wash.

And you go to the supermarket to buy sachet? Have you ever noticed supermarkets, not necessarily S&R, selling sachets by the bundle?

The entire point is you cannot afford the big one. So somebody takes 20 sachets, ties them together and "Save P8!"

Sale: Buy 2, Get One Free. Incredible deal. One problem. You need enough money to buy two. Guy with P100 buys one. Guy with P200 buys three. So the guy with more money gets the lower price.

Apparently even being cheap is cheaper when you have money.

Normally sachet works. You buy one today. Come back tomorrow. Buy another. Until something goes wrong, zombies for example. Bongbong comes on TV: Shing! "Do not leave your homes."

Of course, it's too much! That's the point! You are looking at imported cheese because you have made a mistake!

Why are you pushing a cart the size of a Wigo for four things? Four. I looked. Chicken, toothpaste, chips, something in a bottle.

You paid P700 to enter a building designed to remind you you're above the poverty line, but still below the imported ham. We usually photograph poverty through absence: empty refrigerator, empty table. But here's absence inside abundance.

And the queue? Twenty people. Unacceptable.

At a proper members-only establishment, the cashier should be surprised to see you. "Oh! A customer!" That's exclusivity.

Now, I don't know why half the counters sometimes seem closed. Maybe it's the card. Maybe it's staffing; heard former employees complained about unpaid overtime, lack of manpower.

I don't know, Lucio Co. But if I'm paying to join the club and then waiting 30 minutes to leave it, I could have gone to Puregold and waited for free.

Nine out of 10 Filipinos are not poor. That's what Ralph Recto tells us.

Go to S&R. I did. One Saturday. Tried parking. You look around and: "Ralph's right!"

One thing. Isn't S&R supposed to be a club?

I propose raising membership to P50,000. Thirty thousand was considered. Too compassionate.

This will immediately bring back the dignity of the word member. Because, right now, everybody is a member. Teacher, member. Nurse? Member.

This cannot continue. At P50,000, we finally have a serious club. There should be financial screening.

"Sir, what are you buying today?"

"Bread."

"Puregold is that way."

Nothing personal. But we cannot have you blocking the imported cheese for 10 minutes deciding whether P1,800 is too much.

PHILIPPINE LAWYER HOLDS WOODEN CROSS ✝️

Atty. Mae Divinagracia, a private prosecutor in the impeachment trial of Vice President Sara Duterte, was seen holding a wooden cross bearing the image of Padre Pio during Tuesday's proceedings.

Divinagracia is part of the House prosecution panel assisting in the Senate impeachment trial. On Tuesday, she conducted the direct examination of Office of the Vice President Assistant Secretary and Assistant Chief of Staff Lemuel Ortonio, who testified about the OVP's handling of confidential funds.

Screenshots of Divinagracia holding the cross drew attention online during the proceedings.

In a video posted on Facebook by fellow lawyer Atty. Race Del Rosario, he asked Divinagracia about the cross she had been holding.

"Hi, Atty. Mae. Can you show us the cross that you are holding earlier?" Del Rosario asked.

Divinagracia then showed the wooden cross and explained its personal significance.

'HINDI DAPAT MAKASUHAN ANG MGA IMPEACHABLE OFFICER'

Ayon kay Atty. Paul Lawrence Lim, abogado ni Vice President Sara Duterte, dapat ibasura ng korte ang kasong grave threats kay Duterte sapagkat isang impeachable officer ang bise presidente.

"Yung ating konstitusyon mismo ang nagsasabi na dapat hindi muna makasuhan ang isang nakaupong impeachable officer," saad niya.

Kaya siguro tama na muna ang “mastermind.”

Mas legalistic ang tawag:

head of agency na kailangang magpaliwanag.

1.9K 70 258 2026-08-26 10:34:07

At hindi rin ibig sabihin nito na convicted na si Sara. Hindi pa. The defense still gets to challenge the testimony, explain the documents, and present its own evidence.

Pero public accountability is not a magic trick where shouting “confidential!” makes ₱125 million disappear from scrutiny.

Day 18 left us with very ordinary questions:

Saan galing ang computation ng pera?

Bakit ganoon kabilis?

Bakit may “obligations already incurred”?

Bakit may personal ₱150,000 na isinawsaw sa accounting?

Nasaan ang inventory?

Nasaan ang receipts?

At higit sa lahat, sino ang may alam at authorization?

Ayon sa sarili niyang Assistant Chief of Staff:

Mas legalistic ang tawag:

Ginamit ni Divinagracia ang salitang “scam” at sinubukang itanong kung si Sara ba ang “architect and mastermind.” Umangal ang defense. Tama lang. Sinita siya ni Escudero at pinatanggal ang inflammatory wording.

Sa korte, hindi puwedeng verdict muna bago ebidensya.

Pero dito naging ironic ang araw.

Tinanggal ang “scam.”

Tinanggal ang “mastermind.”

Tinanggal ang dramatic wording ni Divinagracia.

Pinalitan ni Escudero ng neutral, boring, lawyerly question:

Alam ba ni Sara? In-authorize ba niya?

Yes.

Minsan talaga mas masakit ang walang drama.

Hindi kailangang tawaging “mastermind” ni Divinagracia kung ang sariling opisyal mo mismo ang nagsasabing alam at awtorisado mo ang buong proseso.

At hindi rin ibig sabihin nito na convicted na si Sara. Hindi pa. The defense sti

May ₱150,000 discrepancy pa na unang sinabing baka “nahalo” lang ang receipts. Kalaunan, ibang kuwento: personal money daw ni Ortonio, ₱100,000 para supplies at ₱50,000 para rewards, na hanggang ngayon ay hindi pa raw reimbursed.

Government confidential operations na may personal cash advance ng assistant secretary.

Parang sari-sari store, except taxpayers ang puhunan at COA ang naghahanap ng sukli.

Mas naging surreal nang lumabas na may confidential-fund cash umanong ibinigay sa informants para sila mismo ang bumili ng gamot, pagkain, mesa at upuan, at wala umanong ordinary official receipts sa ilang transaksiyon.

At may humigit-kumulang ₱3.5 million na equipment at supplies na, ayon kay Ortonio, walang inventory na naisumite sa COA.

Computers. Printers. Tables. Chairs.

Confidential pati furniture?

Ngayon, credit where due: sumobra rin si prosecutor Mae Divinagracia.

Tapos iyong ₱125 million noong December 2022, na iniulat na na-disburse sa napakaikling panahon, ipinaliwanag gamit ang katagang “obligations already incurred.”

Problema: kung na-incur na ang obligations bago dumating ang pera, kailan eksaktong nagkaroon ng legal authority para obligahin ang gobyerno?

Kung pagkatapos naman dumating ang pera, paano nagkasya ang ganoong kalaking operasyon sa napakaikling window?

At nang tinanong siya ni Presiding Officer Chiz Escudero sa pinakasimple at pinakadelikadong paraan: alam ba at awtorisado ba ni VP Sara ang proseso ng confidential funds mula request, release, paggamit, liquidation hanggang pagsagot sa COA?

Sagot: yes.

Tinanong pa kung may ginawa ba siyang tungkol sa confidential funds nang walang kaalaman o authorization ni Sara.

Arthur Custodio "Confidential" does not mean "exempt from audit." Mali agad ang premise. In fact, Joint Circular 2015-01 was written precisely to protect sensitive operations while still requiring accountability. Documentary evidence can be submitted in sealed envelopes, classified records can be secured, and authorized COA auditors can inspect them. So walang kailangang i-Facebook Live na pangalan ng DPA o detalye ng operation.
Ang issue ay hindi "Bakit ayaw ninyong ilantad ang secret agents?" Ang issue ay: bakit may ₱500M na ayon sa testimony ay ipinasa in four tranches sa isang unbonded security officer; bakit may questioned supporting documents and liquidation; at bakit may COA findings on compliance with the rules governing confidential funds?
Joint Circular 2015-01 even requires duly designated and bonded officers to handle the cash advance and says it cannot simply be transferred from one accountable officer to another. So yes, protect the DPA. Protect the operation. Protect national security. Pero huwag gawing invisibility cloak ang salitang "confidential" para mawala pati audit trail.
Confidential ang operation. Hindi confidential sa COA kung sinunod ang batas.

Safety Drill for Active Attack Incidents na itinakda ng Department of Education (DepEd) sa Martes, Aug. 25.

Giit nila sa isang joint statement, mahalaga ang kahandaan sa mga hindi inaasahang sitwasyon, ngunit ipinapakita ng mga ebidensya na ang hyper-realistic simulations ay hindi nakapagpapabuti sa resulta ng kaligtasan at maaari pang magdulot ng psychological harm sa mga mag-aaral.

…Philippine Psychiatric Association (PPA), together with the Philippine Society for
…d and Adolescent Psychiatry (PSCAP), affirms a shared commitment to safe, secure,
…esilient learning environments. On August 12, 2026, the Department of Education
…Ed), through the Office of the Secretary, issued a Memorandum directing schools
…nwide to conduct a Nationwide Simultaneous School Safety Drill for Active Attack
…ents on August 25, 2026. The directive was subsequently reported in Philstar.com on …st 21, 2026.

…aredness in schools is essential, but the methods chosen must be
…na-informed and grounded in evidence.

Position:
…onduct of a simulation of a live shooter attack drill should be DEFERRED. Such …lations differ from routine safety drills like earthquake or fire exercises, which are …ssary and beneficial. Simulated active-attack exercises expose learners to
…r-realistic scenarios of violence. Current evidence does not show that these
…lations reduce casualties or prevent incidents, while multiple studies demonstrate that …can cause lasting psychological harm across age groups.

…nce Base:
…National Academies of Sciences, Engineering, and Medicine (2025) found insufficient
…nce that simulations improve safety outcomes and advised against high-intensity drills
…ceptive practices.[1] A large-scale study analyzing 54 million social media posts across
…chools documented a 42 percent increase in stress and anxiety language and a 39
…ent increase in depression language, sustained for at least 90 days after drills.[2] The …rican Academy of Pediatrics (2020) cautioned against involving children in
…ntensity shooter simulations and emphasized that deception should never be used.[3]
…ssional consensus from NASP, NASRO, and AACAP (2026) likewise recommends
…ing hyper-realistic simulations, requiring advance notice, and embedding school
…al health professionals in planning.[4]

Recommendations:
School safety is best strengthened through measures that protect without causing trau
Locks, controlled entry points, and perimeter security should be prioritized. Protocols m be trauma-informed, with clear advance notice and the involvement of guidance couns psychologists, psychiatrists, and child psychiatrists.

Instead of live simulations, schools can adopt tabletop exercises. These are simple, discussion-based activities where teachers, staff, and parents sit together and talk thro
"what if" scenarios. For example, participants might ask: "If an intruder enters, who loc the doors? Who calls parents? Where do students go?" This approach builds coordina and preparedness without frightening children.

Participation should be inclusive, with accommodations for learners who have disabilit sensory-processing needs, or prior trauma. Each school should conduct a needs assessment before developing and implementing drills, to ensure that the unique characteristics of its community are considered.

Finally, a joint Mental Health Task Group, composed of DepEd, DOH, and specialty gr such as PPA and PSCAP, should be convened to generate Philippine-specific outcom data before any nationwide mandate is scaled.

Commitment to Learners' Safety
The joint request of PPA and PSCAP to defer the simulation of a live shooter attac is anchored in the same goal that guided DepEd's directive, the protection of Filipino learners. That goal is best achieved through preventive, trauma-informed, and Sumbat ang sagot ni San Jose del Monte Bulacan Mayor Rida Robes sa mga manonood ng isang basketball game matapos sumigaw ang mga ito ng "tubig! tubig!" sa City Sports Complex noong ika-23 ng gabi.

Bumisita umano ang mayora kasama ang asawang si Congressman Arthur Robes sa Ate Rida's Cup kung saan naka-halftime break ang laban ng team Minuyan Proper at Muzon.

Pagpasok ng mag-asawa ay doon na nagsimula ang madla na mag-chant ng kanilang hinaing sa tubig, bagay na kina-inis ng opisyal.

Ani alkalde, lahat naman daw ng gusto at tulong ay ibinibigay nila sa nasasakupan kaya bakit pa raw sila kailangang ipahiya.

“Sino ba ang nag-uudyok sa inyo na walanghiyain ang isang Punong-lungsod at Congressman, aba, Mahiya naman kayo!” sigaw niya.

Isinisi rin ng mayora ang pag-chant ng manonood sa ibang opisyal na gusto silang sirain.

LOL! SHE OUTSMARTED THE AUTHORITIES 😂

A woman in Meerut, India, wanted her neighborhood drain cleaned. There was just one problem: nobody had been listening. 😭

So she came up with a wild plan.

She called the police and reported a missing child, sending officers and municipal workers rushing to the area to begin an urgent search.

Except there was no missing child.

The woman had allegedly made up the story to get authorities to finally pay attention to the neglected drain near her home.

Once officials arrived, the truth came out—but footage of the incident quickly spread online, with many people focusing on the bigger issue.

The joke practically wrote itself: declare an emergency, and suddenly everyone shows up.

People pointed out how quickly authorities responded to the fake emergency compared with how slowly routine complaints about basic civic problems can sometimes be handled.

Si Oscar, 5-anyos na batang may leukemia, ay nangangailangan ng stem cell donor para malabanan ang kanyang cancer. Nang humingi ng tulong ang kanyang pamilya, 4,855 katao ang pumila sa ulan para magpa-test at malaman kung maaari silang maging match para kay Oscar. Sa kabila ng malakas na ulan, marami ang naghintay nang ilang oras para magkaroon ng pagkakataong makatulong kay Oscar.

Sa ₱5,000, 11 years.

Kay Sara, daan-daang milyon ang disallowed, bilyon ang kailangang ipaliwanag, tapos ang masama pa raw ay iyong nagtatanong.

Hindi na yata equal protection of the laws ang gusto ng iba.

Equal protection of the idols.

Sa daan-daang milyon na dinisallow, bilyong audit findings, confidential funds na may dokumentasyong butas-butas, at AMLC suspicious transactions: "Huwag kayong judgmental kay Inday."

Amazing.

Kapag ordinaryong empleyado, ang batas parang bakal.

Kapag political idol, biglang Memory Foam. Kahit gaano kabigat ang red flag, lulubog muna bago maramdaman.

At tandaan: "confidential fund" does not mean "confidential accountability." Public money pa rin iyan. COA still audits it. The Constitution still demands accountability. Public office is still a public trust.

Montana Brown's story is a powerful journey of courage, survival, and compassion. 💛🎗️

Diagnosed with rhabdomyosarcoma as a toddler, Montana spent about a year undergoing cancer treatment at the Aflac Cancer and Blood Disorders Center in Atlanta. She went into remission, but at 15, the cancer returned. Once again, she faced months of chemotherapy and the difficult road toward recovery. 💪

Throughout both battles, Montana never forgot the nurses who cared for her with kindness and compassion. Their support inspired her to choose nursing as her own career. 👩‍⚕️❤️

After earning her nursing degree from Augusta University in 2016, Montana's journey came full circle. In September 2017, at age 24, she joined the nursing staff at the very same cancer center where she had once been a patient.

From receiving care as a child to giving hope and comfort to others, Montana transformed her experience into a purpose.

Sharing the Gospel is something we are called to do, but how we do it matters. We don't have to disturb, shame, or condemn people to tell them about Jesus. There is wisdom in knowing when, where, and how to share our faith. May we proclaim Christ with the same love, grace, and compassion that He has shown us.

Dahil sa mga salaysay na ito, naging mahalagang lugar ang Mount of Olives para sa mga Kristiyano. Hanggang ngayon, makikita rito ang iba't ibang simbahan at banal na lugar na konektado sa mga tradisyon tungkol sa buhay ni Jesus.

Kaya kapag nakikita natin ang Mount of Olives ngayon, hindi lamang ito isang magandang tanawin ng Jerusalem.

Isa itong tunay na lugar na paulit-ulit na binabanggit sa kuwento ng ministeryo, panalangin, pagdurusa at huling mga araw ni Jesus. 🙏📖

ANG BUNDOK NA MADALAS PUNTAHAN NI JESUS SA JERUSALEM

Sa silangang bahagi ng Jerusalem ay matatagpuan ang Mount of Olives, isang mahalagang lugar na paulit-ulit na binabanggit sa Bagong Tipan kaugnay ng buhay at ministeryo ni Jesus.

Ayon sa Luke 21:37, nagtuturo si Jesus sa templo tuwing araw at tuwing gabi ay pumupunta sa Mount of Olives. Kaya malinaw na hindi lamang minsan napunta si Jesus sa lugar na ito.

Dito rin iniuugnay ang ilan sa mahahalagang pangyayari sa mga huling araw ng buhay ni Jesus. Ayon sa mga Ebanghelyo, pumunta Siya sa Mount of Olives kasama ang Kanyang mga alagad bago ang Kanyang pagdakip. Sa lugar ding ito matatagpuan ang Garden of Gethsemane, kung saan nanalangin si Jesus bago Siya dakpin.

May isa pang mahalagang pangyayari na iniuugnay sa bundok na ito. Sa Acts 1:9–12, matapos ang pagkabuhay na mag-uli ni Jesus, inilarawan ang Kanyang pag-akyat sa langit at ang pagbabalik ng mga alagad sa Jerusalem mula sa lugar na tinatawag na Mount of Olives.

Dahil sa mga salaysay na ito, n

Kiko Barzaga: Hindi online games at social media ang dapat sisihin sa school shootings

Nagbigay ng pananaw si dating Congressman Kiko Barzaga tungkol sa patuloy na diskusyon sa mga posibleng dahilan ng mga insidente ng school shooting.

Ayon kay Barzaga, hindi umano dapat ibunton ang sisi sa online games at social media dahil hindi niya ito nakikitang pangunahing dahilan ng mga pamamaril sa mga paaralan.

Sa halip, sinabi niyang mas dapat pagtuunan ng pansin ang umano’y kakulangan sa regulasyon sa mga baril at ang pagiging iresponsable ng ilang gun owners.

Dumating ang kanyang pahayag habang patuloy ang diskusyon tungkol sa epekto ng online games at social media sa pag-uugali ng mga kabataan.

“School shootings are caused by poor firearm regulation laws and irresponsible gun owners, not online games and social media,” pahayag ni Barzaga.

I am not yet a mother, nor am I a child anymore. But as an Ilongga and as Vice Governor, nalipay guid ako sa pagtukod sang moderno kag matahum nga Mother and Child Building sa Iloilo Provincial Hospital sa Brgy. Rumbang, Pototan, Iloilo.

The Iloilo Provincial Government has significantly increased public spending for healthcare, while also working hard to bring in resources from different development partners. Naging sentro ng atensyon si San Jose del Monte, Bulacan Mayor Florida “Rida” Robes matapos siyang umalma sa sigaw ng ilang manonood na “tubig, tubig!” habang dumalo siya sa isang basketball game sa Minuyan Sports Complex noong gabi ng Agosto 23.

Bumisita umano ang alkalde kasama ang kanyang asawang si Congressman Arthur Robes sa Ate Rida’s Cup, kung saan nagkaroon ng halftime break ang laban ng Minuyan Proper at Muzon.

Pagpasok ng mag-asawa sa venue, nagsimulang marinig mula sa mga manonood ang kanilang chant tungkol sa tubig. Ayon sa mga ulat at kumalat na video, hindi ito ikinatuwa ng alkalde at nagsalita siya sa harap ng mga tao.

Aniya, ginagawa naman umano ng kanilang administrasyon ang mga kinakailangang tulong para sa kanilang nasasakupan.

“Hindi tama Minuyan Proper, lahat ng pagbibigay, ibinibigay ko sa inyo. Kung sino man ang nag-uudyok sa inyo na walanghiyain ang isang punong-lungsod at kongresista, aba, mahiya naman kayo,” pahayag ni Robes.
